

Ram Prasad Dhungana

Ram Prasad Dhungana has been working since 1990 in the field of disabilities in Nepal. Now he is the President/Rehabilitation Expert in National Rehabilitation Centre of the Disabled (NRCD) Nepal, a non-profit self-help organization of the persons with disabilities (PWDs) since a decade. He was the Secretary General in Disabled People's International (DPI) Nepal and National Federation of the Disabled (NFDN) since 2004 to 2007. He is advisors in many of the self-help organizations of the PWDs in Nepal. He has been playing an executive and advisory roles including rehabilitation expertise services on different issues of disabilities. Beyond these responsibilities he has been holding the post of National Secretary of Rehabilitation International Nepal since 2008 and vice-chairperson of National Democratic Organization of PWDs till the date voluntarily.

Mr. Dhungana sits on a number of various rights based and self-help organizations of PWDs including in Nepal. He has continued his struggle for the protection and promotion of the rights and dignity of the PWDs. He has been focusing his attention on improving opportunities for employment creation to PWDs through skills training, income generation activities, independent living skills, personal development and various rehabilitation services based on the needs of PWDs for their meaningful and dignified lives. He has been awarded with many national and international awards and cash prizes time to time for his outstanding social work..